County Board Chairperson - Mick McGrath

Tá fáilte róibh go léir chuig na cluichí leathcheannais de chraobhchomórtais iománaíocht na condae a bhéas ar siúl an deireadh seachtaine seo. Is am an-deacair é seo d'imreoirí, lucht bainistíochta, oifighigh agus lucht féachana agus tá áthas ar CLG Dhún na nGall a bheith in ann na cluichí leathcheannais go léir a shruhlú beo agus an clár fíorúil seo a sholáthar ina bhfuil an fhaisnéis is tábhachtaí. You are all very welcome to this weekend's Senior and Junior hurling championship semi-finals. We have battled against the change in our lifestyles, our work, our social fabric, our families, and our sporting involvement. The GAA has seen many changes since its foundation, and it has originated from the roots and soul of our Gaelic traditions, but no member could have foreseen the changes wrought by Covid-19.

The year 2020 will certainly remain in our memories as the year of transformation, and we continue to implement the many prevention measures required to keep this virus at bay. I encourage you all to continue the great work that we have all had a part to play in, and I thank you for the many hours of voluntary assistance you have contributed in your Club areas in assisting the HSE and others, in bringing safe and healthy practice to vulnerable and lonely members of our communities. On behalf of the GAA in Donegal I thank the frontline workers who have given so much to helping our society, in facing the challenge of the coronavirus. There was a period this year where we all thought that we wouldn't get playing our games, but many difficulties were overcome and we are now at the semi-finals stages of our hurling championship. We have not agreed with all the instructions and regulations, but we respect the decision makers for their fight against this unprecedented virus while still getting our games played.

The County Competition Control Committee (CCCC) have used new regulations, competition formats, and workmanlike decision making to reach this stage of championship, and we are all delighted to be close to completing both our football and hurling championships. I congratulate all Clubs who have continued to contribute to giving us the opportunity to see Gaelic games played in changed and difficult times. The streaming of our games is a new phase and challenge and one that has gone relatively well so far. I wish the eight competing teams, and the match Officials, the best of luck.

Hurling Board Chairperson - Manus O'Domhnaill

On behalf of An Choiste Iomána, I would like to wish all of our teams competing in the Senior and Junior Hurling Championships, at the weekend, every success. I am sure Hurling fans in the County are going to be treated to a 'Festival of Hurling', in O'Donnell Park on Saturday and In Hibernian Park on Sunday.

First up on Saturday, Setanta and Dungloe play in the first of the Junior Semi Finals. I expect a close game, with Setanta looking to reverse the result from the previous game as Championship Hurling brings out the best in Setanta, while An Clochán Liath are striving to reach their first ever Junior Final. In the Senior Semi Final, Burt and Setanta, the traditionalists of Hurling in the County and great rivals in many past Senior Finals, will I am sure, give us a great game of hurling.

On Sunday the action moves to Hibernian Park in Burt. In the Junior game, we have a repeat of last year's Junior Final, Aodh Ruadh versus Carndonagh. This promises to be an exciting game, as Carndonagh have already got the upper hand over Aodh Ruadh this year, defeating them earlier in the season. However, as defending champions Aodh Ruadh will not relinquish their title easily.

In the Senior Semi Final, I am expecting a very competitive game between Buncrana and Saint Eunan's. Many Hurling people in the County, consider both of these two teams capable of being future Senior Hurling Champions.

Finally, I hope that we have two great days of Hurling and it is fantastic to have supporters back at our games.

Ádh Mór,

Trevor Moloney – Referee, Aodh Ruadh v Carn Domhnaigh

Sunday.

Currently Trevor lives in Bunrana and is a member of CLG Bun Cranncha. Trevor has served in the defence forces for 20 years and is based at Finner Camp. He represented Longford at minor level in both hurling and football but injury cut his playing career short and he decided to take up refereeing to stay involved in the GAA.

New boys Dungloe and Carn Favourites for Final

Preview from Gerry McLaughlin - Donegal Post

It will be a real family affair as new boys Dungloe lock horns with old hands Setanta in the JHC semi-final this weekend.

For sons James and Thomas Hartnett will be joined by youthful dad Cormac Hartnett in a squad that is mostly U-21.

This is Dungloe's first year in adult hurling and Hartnett senior has put a lot of work in bringing hurling to the Rosses and Gaoth Dobhair.

"Yes, this is the first year we have had an adult team in the area and we did field an U-21 team last year," said the Dungloe-based solicitor.

The team is mainly made up of Dungloe lads but there are four players from Naomh Muire, four from Gaoth Dobhair and one each from Na Rossa and one from Cioghaneely.

These sides have already met in the group stages and Dungloe had an easy win.

But cagey Cormac says that Setanta were missing some key players and that will have no bearing on Saturday.

"We did have a good win but Setanta are much stronger than that and veteran Simon McMenamin is there along with a few young Campbell's who are very good players and they also have a Gallen lad in their ranks who is also very good.

"These are exciting times for us, and we have assembled a squad of around 30 which is very encouraging and it is good to see hurling taking off here."

The team trains in Dungloe and are looking forward to a big test.

Meanwhile the clash of reigning champions Aodh Ruadh and last year's beaten finalists Carndonagh could be a real cracker.

The Ballyshannon boys came from eight points down to record a spirited win over a physically powerful Carn side who had dominated the early stages.

John Rooney's men are powered by Paul Sheridan, Peter Horan, Pauric Keenaghan, Ciraran Kilgannon, Oisín Rooney and Rory Cullen.

It is a great pity that they do not have really talented hurlers like Colm Kelly, Eamon McGrath, Shane McGrath, Eddie Lynch and Jamie Brennan from Bundoran available to them.

For there is no doubt but that if these guys were on board, Aodh Ruadh would be challenging for senior honours.

There is no big reason why they should not be available when you consider how Burt operate in Donegal, Slaughtneil of Derry operate at a much higher level and the great Daithi Burke hurls for Turloughmore and plays football for Corofin.

This is a nettle that needs to be grasped and not just in Ballyshannon either.

But the Doherty powered Carn look to be firm favourites as they easily defeated Aodh Ruadh in an earlier encounter.

It could be close but the Inishowen boys are fancied to progress.

CLG Dhún na nGall have only been able to stream half of this weekend's championship fixtures but the clubs have stepped up to the mark to stream the others free to air. We are grateful to CLG An Clochán Liath who are working with Bradas Video Productions to bring live streaming of the Junior semi-final against Setanta to their Facebook page, free of charge, to all the frustrated spectators unable to get to O'Donnell Park. Bradas Video Productions is a key component, along with Aidan Spence Web Graphics and Marketing and Joe's Tech Help of the Donegal GAA Stream Team. This weekend they are also streaming hurling semi-finals on a PPV basis.

Bradas O'Donnell has vast experience in the live broadcast & streaming of games and has worked for Sky Sports, RTE, TG4 and Eir sports covering live games as a cameraman & also as covering live streams across the country for Nemeton TV along with Joe's Tech Help. Joe Brennan controls all the technical end of the live stream & broadband issues while Aidan Spence looks after the PPV (Pay per view) and also has responsibility for the Donegal GAA website - updated regularly, the site is crucial to CLG Dhún na nGall's public relations, keeping our Gaels up to date with everything happening in the world of Donegal GAA.

Advertising Opportunities

Nine virtual programmes have been compiled to date. There are two more weekends of games left in the A Football and Hurling Championships. All remaining games will be streamed by Donegal GAA. Virtual programmes for remaining games will include the following:

- Senior Final (September 27th) - featuring Cill Chártha and Naomh Conaill this programme will be 48 pages. It will profile all players from the two squads. include club histories, words from the captain, manager and chairperson of each club, expert opinion pieces, facts from previous finals, recollections on the 1995 final, team sheets and eight pages of adverts;
- Intermediate Final (September 26th)- this programme will feature Aodh Ruadh and Cloich Cheann Phaols and it is envisaged the programme will be similar in content to the Senior programme.
- Relegation Finals - featuring An Clochán Liath, Baile na nGalloglach, Naomh Colmcille and Naomh Ultan this programme will feature expert opinion pieces, team sheets and 6 pages of adverts.

Junior Football finals and Hurling finals are still at the semi-final stage. and the protagonists in the finals are not yet determined Last year the Junior final was played as a double-header with the Intermediate final and there was a joint programme. This year it seems likely they will be on different weekends and there is likely to be two separate programmes.

Last year there was also a joint programme for the Senior and Junior finals and it is likely that this will also be the case in 2020. The hurling finals are currently scheduled for the weekend of October 4th and 5th.

James Callaghan – Referee, Buncranncha v Naomh Adhamhnáin

James is a dual player and dual referee operating out of the Setanta and Red Hughs clubs. He has had the honour of representing Donegal in both underage and senior hurling teams.

James won an u-16 football championship with Red Hughs and as a hurler with Setanta he has a minor championship medal, four senior hurling championship medals and an Ulster championship. He has also won two All-Ireland championship medals while playing with Kilmacud Crokes. James also managed the Setanta club to u-14 and Feile county titles.

His favourite Gaelic footballer is Armagh's Kieran McGeeney, while the legendary Ken McGrath of Waterford is his favourite hurler. He likes to let the game flow, his favourite quote being "play the whistle lads".

James Connors – Referee, Setanta v Burt

The referee for Saturday's semi-final in O'Donnell Park, Setanta v Burt, is James Connors.

James is a member of Naomh Adhamhnáin CLG and has been refereeing both football and hurling in Donegal since 2011. James joined the Ulster referees academy in 2012 and graduated in 2014.

James and his team of officials and umpires wish both sides the best of luck in today's game and look forward to an exciting and competitive encounter.

Familair Faces Lock Horns in O'Donnell Park

Preview from Alan Foley - Donegal Sport Hub

Although the Donegal SHC is showing a change in landscape of late, its two familiar faces are locking horns at O'Donnell Park in the first of the semi-finals.

Setanta, where they went down on a 4-21 to 0-11 scoreline.

The team from Scarvey have been building their way with a series of underage successes up to the senior

Last year's champions Setanta overcame their last four opponents Burt on a 3-14 to 1-8 scoreline when they met at the end of July and will be favourites to return to the final, where they were victors over St Eunan's last year.

As for Burt, times might be changing at Hibernian Park but it's never wise to underestimate them, as their gloried recent history would suggest – they've 39 titles in all and won 16 in succession between 1991 and 2006.

They meet St Eunan's in Burt on Sunday in the second of the last four pairings. The Letterkenny side have been making significant inroads themselves having appeared in two finals in the last three years. On each occasion they've come up just short against Setanta, but they're knocking on the door again.

Buncrana were the team fastest out of the blocks this year, winning their three opening fixtures before becoming undone against

In the JHC semi-finals, Dungloe will be looking to continue their impressive campaign against Setanta, with Aodh Ruadh paired against Carndonagh.

All proceeds from the draw go towards paying the debt on the newly completed Phase 2 of the Donegal GAA Centre in Convoy and financing the planned Phase 3. The ongoing development of the Centre is a key plank in the future success of GAA games in Donegal - football and hurling, youth and adult, ladies and men. The Donegal Facebook page has a video of county manager Declan Bonner and captain Michael Murphy discussing the centrality of the facilities at Convoy to both the continued success of our county representatives and the nurturing of future stars.

Tickets for the draw can be bought online using devices from mobiles to desktop computers. Tickets are also from contacts within each of the forty clubs in the County. Thanks you to the Abbey Hotel, Donegal; the Allingham Arms, Bundoran; the Mount Errigal, Letterkenny; and the Villa Rose, Ballybofey - tickets had been available from these venues but due to Covid 19 regulations this is no longer the case.

During the half-time break in each of the championship knock-out games you can either listen to a Donegal celebrity - Conal Gallen, Daniel O'Donnell or Micky Joe Hart - promoting the draw or watch an excellent bird's eye view of the recently completed Phase 2 of the Centre compliments of drone footage shot by main contractors McDermott and Trearty. WinYourHouseinDublin also sponsor today's Man of the Match.

Club Donegal have also been kind enough to sponsor the Man of the Match award in a seven of our 2020 football and hurling championship fixtures.

There is a dedicated mobile phone number, where queries can be answered and purchases can be made - 086-604-7089. Currently you can follow Club Donegal on Facebook at "Win Your House in Dublin", on Twitter @WinHouseDublin and on Instagram at @winyourhouseindublin.

The long standing Donegal Stream Team will be Streaming the two games from Hibernian Park today. They consist of BradasVideo Productions, Aidan Spence Web Graphics and Marketing and Joe's Tech Help. Bradas O'Donnell has vast experience in the live broadcast & streaming of games and has worked for Sky Sports, RTE, TG4 and Eir Sports covering live games as a cameraman & also covering live streams across the country for Nemeton TV along with Joe's Tech Help. Joe Brennan controls all the technical end of the live stream & broadband issues which is a difficult job at some venues, with poor reception, but we work to the best of our ability to get the pictures to the viewers. Aidan Spence looks after the PPV including help lines and also has responsibility for the Donegal GAA website - updated regularly, the site is crucial to CLG Dhún na nGall's public profile, keeping our Gaels up to date with everything happening in the world of Donegal GAA. Commentary today is from Maurice McLoughlin, with co-commentary from John Joe Doherty and Donegal manager, Michael McCann.
