Fáilciú ón Cachaoirleach

A cháirde, mar Cathaoirleach Choiste Chontae Chill Dara is mór an phribhléid dom fáilte o chroí a fhearadh romhaibh go léir go dti Naomh Conleth Droichead Nua inniu. Fearaim fáilte specialte roimh An Cathaoirleach, Na hOifigigh, Imreoirí, Bhainistíoch agus lucht leanúna ó Dún na nGall . Tá súil agam go mbeidh cluichi brea sportiuil againn.

On behalf of Coiste Cill Dara I wish to extend a cead mile failte to the PJ McGowan Chairman of Donegal GAA and his fellow officers, supporters and especially the Donegal team to St. Conleths Park for this afternoon's match in round 3 of the Allianz GAA Football National League.

Today's encounter should be an outstanding contest between two well matches teams with ambitions at achieving National honours in 2010. Donegal arrive in Newbridge today on the back of good wins over Westmeath and Laois and as joint leaders in Division 2 of the Allianz GAA Football National League. Kieran McGeeney and his team will be determined to gain two points, and put them back on track for league honours.

I would like to extend a warm welcome to today's referee Michael Collins (Corcaigh) and his officials; we look forward to a good sporting game and hope you all enjoy your visit to Droichead Nua.

We have recently received confirmation from Croke Park and the National Infrastructure Committee that funding for phase two of the Hawkfield Centre of Excellence has been granted. I would like to sincerely thank all who were involved in granting this funding, particularly during these difficult economic times. The financial backing of our clubs along with this funding will help to complete this long overdue Centre of Excellence.

It is the intention of Kildare County Board to create a "Lifetime Donor Wall" in the reception area at the Centre of Excellence. Further details on this initiative will be available by the next home match against Westmeath

The ongoing improvement work on St Conleth's Park continues and we apologise for any inconvenience this may cause. We hope these improvements will prove positive to all who support our games.

In the past week John McCarthy from the Leixlip club stepped down from the position of treasurer at Leinster Council after serving his 3 year term of office. Míle buíochas to John on behalf of all Gaels in Kildare and Leinster, John can leave in the knowledge that he has made a major contribution during that time. John will remain actively involved at county level in Kildare as an excellent secretary of our Coaching and Games committee.

I wish to extend my congratulations to all in the Confey club who in the past week celebrated 21 Years in existence. The contribution of all involved over the years in the development of your club and facilities must be acknowledged. We wish you well in 2010 and in the future.

Wishing Kildare G.A.A. every success in 2010

Congratulations to Tom Maher and the staff of Maynooth College who hosted the Sigerson Cup football competition recently. Thanks to all clubs who helped with the smooth running of this prestigious competition, and in particular St Mary's Leixlip who hosted the Trench and Sigerson finals.

I would like to extend a warm welcome to the teachers from the Primary Schools of Kildare our guests at today's games. These men and women not alone provide the education for our children but actively provide promote and foster our games. I would encourage all our clubs in actively supporting our schools and have a school liaison officer actively working with the school.

Croke Park's GAA Respect Initiative is now up and running and Kildare county board fully support this initiative. Signage around the grounds today clearly states respect for all and I would ask our patrons today to fully support and encourage this request at club and county level.

We hope everyone has an enjoyable sporting afternoon and may we have an exciting contest between the man of Kildare and Donegal

On behalf of the Kildare Senior Footballers I would like to thank most sincerely all the many companies and individuals who supported our recent fundraising campaign.

Kildare enjoyed a relatively successful year in 2009 reaching a Leinster Final and All Ireland Quarter-Final. The team hopes to progress further in 2010 and achieving these ambitions will require considerable funding on an ongoing basis to provide the supports necessary.

Your support will help to ensure that we have the necessary funds in place to assist us in achieving our goals of Leinster and All-Ireland success in 2010.

An early season test for Kildare

By Brendan Coffey, Sports Editor, Kildare Nationalist

WHEN Kildare play Donegal this afternoon, both sides will learn a lot about just how good they are right now but supporters should always beware that their measure of the team is not the same as the manager's. How good a manager wants his side to be for the first weekend in March is a question he'll never answer but it's stil very relevant.

After Kildare's defeat to Down in round one, James McCartan reckoned that winning by a big margin was a bad thing for his Down side. The manager may not have been genuine when he said he'd rather have seen a few shots miss than go over the bar in the closing stages but he was genuine in his concern that some supporters might get carried away by one good win.

At the same time, Kildare's supporters were rushing out the gate, one as gloomy as the next. Losing by 11 points precipitated all kinds of sour reactions. Some Lilywhites even said they wouldn't come and watch in future if this was what they were going to be served after Sunday dinner.

Kieran McGeeney might have thought he would have a problem controlling hype in 2010 after going so close to a Leinster title last year and almost beating the All-Ireland champions. Instead his third league game of the year sees him trying to lift the mood in the camp. His side have been rocked by injuries, suspensions and withdrawals. And if the Lilies perform today like they did against Down, he'll have the supporters on his back as well.

So what does the manager want from his team right now? Donegal are on a high, having started the season with silverware courtesy of a very exciting win in the McKenna Cup final against Tyrone, Kildare's conquerors in last year's All-Ireland quarter-final. If John Joe Doherty's side continue as they've started division two. on all known form, Kildare could well be in for another rough afternoon. And here come the but's. It's three weeks since both teams last played. The break was much more important for the Lilies because of their off-field woes - the mounting injury list and the suspension of John Doyle and Morgan O'Flaherty - while Donegal might have had their momentum broken a little hit.

Given that Doyle is back for Kildare and the Lilies were woefully short on scores against Down, Kildare should improve and the revelation that was Anthony Rainbow in the playmaker role against Tipperary, gives the Lilies strength where they really need it, and where they've really missed the injured Mikey Conway.

That doesn't mean the Lilies will win though and Donegal have to be favourites based on what they've done so far.

Today Kildare will return to health by performing well, not winning well. The Lilies may not win but they need to be sharp and smart — exactly what they weren't against Down. If they can do that then supporters should be happy even if they won't be satisfied with anything less than a win.

In that sense, they share something in common with the manager but no bainisteoir wants to be smiling in March. Plenty of time for that later in the year.

Donegal and St. Conleth's Park

by TOM COMACK, Donegal Democrat/ Highland Radio

THE form book suggests this afternoon's meeting of Kildare and Donegal here in St. Conleth's Park should be a keenly contested affair.

The locals, after an opening day disappointment and eye opener against Down, recovered well the next day out to bag all two points against Tipperary.

Visitors Donegal have a better start behind them. They travelled to Mullingar's Cusack Park, for their opener and took home the full points on the back of their 1-13 to 0-9 victory over Westmeath.

Next day out it was another Midland side, Laois, that provided the opposition this time on home turf in Fr. Tierney Park, in Ballyshannon with Donegal celebrating Valentine's Day with a 3-11 to 0-5 win.

And so the stage is set. Donegal and John Joe Doherty on four points and Kildare and Kieran McGeeney, on two points - and both with their sights set much higher.

While it is questionable which side's form is better given that Kildare have locked horns with one of the other big guns, Down. On the other hand Donegal, with respect to Westmeath and Laois folk that may have ventured to St. Conleth's Park, today, have played two of the softer touches in this division.

But regardless of the form guide Kildare have one big advantage going into this afternoon's contest. And that is St. Conleth's Park. St. Conleth's Park has never been a happy hunting ground for the men from the north-west. Their last three visits they have ended in tears.

Last time, they locked horns here, just two seasons ago in a somewhat tetchy encounter to put it mildly, the Lilywhites emerged narrow one point 0-12 to 0-11 winners.

On that day John Doyle kicked a point from a penalty to tie up the game at 0-11 each, before Mark Conway struck for the winner deep in injury time.

Eleven years earlier and their previous visit in the league the winning margin was even more convincing.

On that day Mick O'Dwyer's charges ended a bad run of defeats and took out revenge on Donegal to run out 1-14 to 1-7 winners.

Glen Ryan, Martin Lynch were just two of the Kildare big guns on that occasion. While current manager John Joe Doherty backboned the Donegal defence and his mentors' Tony Boyle and Tommy Ryan battled with little success up front against Sos Dowling and company. Donegal chairman P. J. McGowan was wearing the Tir Chonaill mainistir's bid on that day.

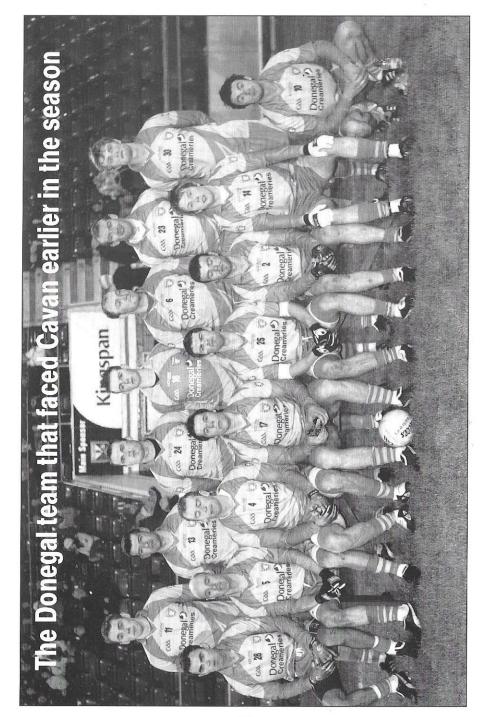

So it is easy to see why Donegal followers in the crowd this afternoon made the trip all the way from the northwest with a fair old degree of trepidation.

SEÁN CRIBBIN: 1922-2010

Seán Cribbin, community worker supreme, was laid to rest, just yards from his ancestral home in Mainham, on Sunday February 21st 2010. A legend in his lifetime, known all over Co.Kildare, respected by all GAA clubs in the county, he had completed an exciting and action-packed journey of life. He was in his 88th year. Seán was steeped in Gaelic games of football and hurling. How could he escape?

Born in 1922, Kildare had won All-Irelands in 1905 and 1919. Two others would be added during the first six years of his life, 1927 and 1928, Kildare, the first County to lift the Sam Maguire cup in 1928. With eight Clane men on board at the beginning, local pride was intense. Great fireside stories of mighty deeds on the field of play, told and re-told. Larry "Hussy" Cribbin, winner of two in '05 and '19, his ferocious strength, centre back Bill Merriman, Joe Rafferty, "Steel" Losty, J.Dunne, J.Wright, Ned Kennedy and Bill Bracken - names etched forever in the memory of Seán. Several of them worked at Clongowes Wood College, heroes in the flesh. He lived nearby. He visited them as a boy, they at work. He listened to the baker. the tailor, the butcher, the ploughman.

There were stories of the one that got away 1903, the home final, against Kerry, played three times before a winner emerged, two years behind schedule, 1905. Drama, in all three. "Time, time" chanted the Kildare supporters. They lead by a point. A Kerry goal. "The goalie took the ball behind the line" said one umpire, "Not so" said the other. The referee awarded the game to Kerry. Kildare's objection. The match re-fixed for the 27th August '05. Kerry missed a penalty. The ball burst. The game ended level. The ref mistakenly awarded the game to Kerry. The referee collapsed, recovered and corrected his mistake. The third stanza was fixed for Cork on October 5th 1905. Crowds swelled to over 20,000, fifteen special trains, record gate taking 270 pounds. The G.A.A. had taken firm roots in the minds of the people – all mouth-opening-wide stories for the boy, Seán.

He would become Clane's memory man, the heartbeat of the club for decades. Elected secretary in 1945 at the age of 23, he fulfilled his duties with impeccable dedication for 25 years. Treasurer 1970-1982, twelve of the busiest years for the club. Sgt. Peter Marron spotted some land on the Prosperous Road. It was wet and soggy, seven or eight small fields. Seán and Joe Bracken decided it could be developed. It would take some effort and money.

Carnivals were organised, marquee dancing, 3 nights per week for seven weeks in summer, close to eight years. JOIN...

There were Pony Races, Donkey Derbies, Field Days and Tournaments, Tin Can Alley and Wheel o' Fortune, shilling pieces and half crowns. They added up. Support for the fledging Post-Primary school, local needs. Large concrete pipes in place, hundreds of lorry loads of clay, stone picking, dressing rooms, a hall to be built. Eventually, green fields. "When my work is all done and my race here is run...." sang Jim Reeves.

Seán's funeral cortege halted at Conneff Park on Saturday evening. The young men of Clane 2010 shouldered his coffin high, to the village Church gate, his final visit to the place he loved, Clane his Jerusalem, everything except the Palm branches.

The crowds were magnificent, many clubs represented, Pat Mangan from Carbury, Joe McTeague from Ballyteague, Martin Mulligan from Cappagh, Patsy Power from Raheens, many others. Pat Griffin came from the deep south of Munster. Clane G.A.A. paid its tribute at the church ceremony, words inadequate at times. His son, Sgt. John Cribbin paid a lovely tribute. Fr. Conor Harpur S.J. celebrated his funeral mass, the college and the Cribbins always close. Fr.Paul O'Boyle P.P., Fr.Denis Harrington, Fr. P.J.Byrne P.P.Kilcock and Fr.Richard, a family relative were all in attendance. Clane G.A.A. ladies committee served dinner to 200 friends.

Seán Cribbin speaks no more. But if he could, he would warn all: "Hands Off".

- Clane was the first club in Kildare, developed from an athletics sports event in Clane on the 24th of June 1884 (see Leinster Leader 31st May 1884).
- 2. Tommy Conneff, the world champion runner, ran his first race at the sports day in Clane on the 4th of June 1885.
- 3. Clane gave the white jersey to Kildare. Clongowes Wood College wore white. (see photo of the 1926 rugby cup winners on display at the college). Clane men working at the college often borrowed the jerseys for the club. The white was worn by Kildare in the 1903 All-Ireland Final, Clane being the County Champions, eight of the players on the county team. Also white flour bags were collected at the college bakery and made into jerseys in earlier times.

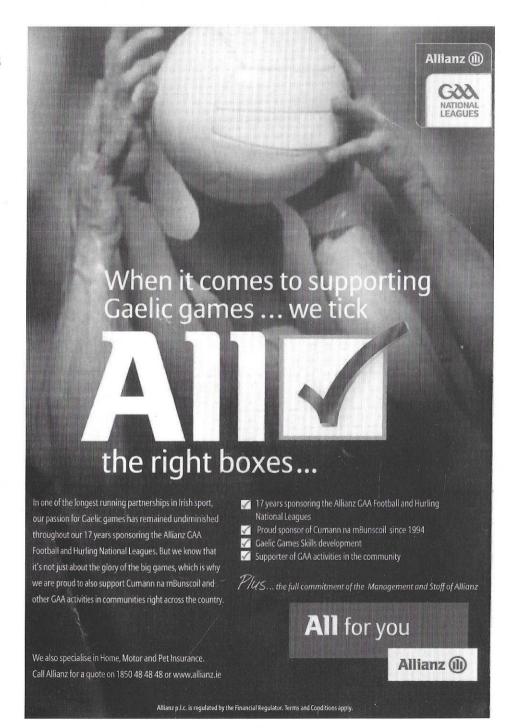

To his wife Breda, his family John, Breda, Dominic, Sheila and Richard, our deepest sympathy. We remember his first born Pat, who died in 1988, aged 26 years.

Solas Dé dá anam go deo. R.I.P.

20 colourful years. Guaranteed.

The only problem Tegral encountered with our famous Thrutone roofing slates was this: what could we do to make them better?

As Ireland's leading supplier of quality roofing products, we believe in solutions, not problems. So we came up with ThrutonePlus. With a unique 20-year colour guarantee - and new all-edge-coating - ThrutonePlus comes with all the expertise (and more than 70 years' experience) of Tegral, the only company to manufacture roofing slates here in Ireland.

See for yourself how we've made a great product even better - ask for ThrutonePlus at your local Builders' Merchant. And then... simply fit them, then sit back and admire the view!

For more information on ThrutonePlus or any of our quality roof slates, contact us at the telephone number or email address below.
